++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rather cloudy with patchy rain, but east brighter at times.

Today:
Rather cloudy, especially across western and northern Aberdeenshire, with patchy mainly light. However eastern and southern Aberdeenshire likely to see some brighter or sunnier spells at times. Warm despite the gusty southwesterly breeze. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Tonight:
Eastern, and later northern, Aberdeenshire look largely dry with some clear spells overnight, but the west remains mostly cloudy with occasional mainly light rain. Occasionally strong southwesterly breeze. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tuesday:
Western Aberdeenshire remains rather cloudy with patchy rain while northern and eastern parts look dry, bright and warm. More persistent rain edges south in evening. Occasionally strong southwesterly winds easing. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Outbreaks of rain, with hill snow, on Wednesday morning but becoming drier and brighter from north in afternoon. Thursday and Friday, colder, overnight frosts, but largely dry with sunny spells.
